#652: Put Your Back Into It

Now this is how you work as a team. It is not the best way to reach a high point when building a structure. I would have suggested a taller ladder, or at least moved it closer. Maybe this is a snapshot of a new workout video. Or a how-to on filing a workman's compensation claim...

Today's risk management quiz...How long did it take after the person taking this picture suggest another method? Is the only safety concern the guy standing on the back of his friend? How many can you find?
